Comments

What a beautiful weekend. Golf in January is just NOT supposed to be so grand! As we can expect with the glorious weather, our turnouts were well above average for this time of year. There may be some serious prize money available for the Spring Championship!

There are some interesting notes from this weekend's play:

- No gold tee money for Saturday (very unusual). Of the 3 paid places, two played from the white tees and the other from the blue.
- Jerry Hallford had a grand day Saturday. Be sure and congratulate him for his play.
- Jim Vaughn shot a stellar 79 on Sunday. He made some birdies and picked up some serious Skins money. Well played, Jim.

We're now out of the holiday season and back to Saturday/Sunday event play only. Keep coming out – It's the only way you can win.

Until next weekend,

TL Reynolds
