Congratulations to Jim Buckman. He's been playing with us for quite a few months now, and hasn't grossed much in monetary returns; that changed Saturday. Jim had a great day and posted a +6. It's great to see some new players in the winner's circle.

And then there was Sunday -- cold, blistery Sunday. Only 5 nuts, er...., 'golfers' showed up to play. And what a dogfight it was; minus 21 won the team event!! LOL. Of course, our resident Yankee Doodle Dandy (Gil Violette) managed to not shoot as bad as the rest. Good playing, Gil.

Hopefully, next weekend's weather will be better. Have a great week, gentlemen.

Until next week,

TL Reynolds
